PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27.

Extract of ſundry Letters from London of the following Dates, viz. May 9, 1767.

"The Miniſtry ſtill ſtand their Ground; and Lord Chatham ſtill continues to be incapable of giving the leaſt attention to buſineſs of any kind. His diſorder is ſaid to be occaſioned by his repeatedly repelling the fits of the gout, when he found them coming upon him, by violent medicines, which hath thrown the diſeaſe into his brain. Thoſe who remember the brilliant figure he made during the laſt war; who recollect the bold and ſucceſsful operations in which he was the firſt mover; and who ſtill admire him as an illuſtrious character, muſt ſee ſo mortifying, and ſo total a change, with pity and concern.

"Nothing is yet concluded regarding your North American affairs. They were to have come on before the houſe of commons laſt week, but were poſtponed on account of the indiſpoſition of the chancellor of the exchequer, who is ſomewhat afraid of the oppoſition upon this occaſion. I know not what will be the iſſue, as both the miniſtry, and thoſe out of power are divided in opinion. Among the former, C—s T——d's for violent methods; Mr. Conway for more lenient meaſures. Among the latter, G. Grenville is for ſupporting his firſt opinion regarding the ſtamp-act; the Marquis of Rockingham the contrary. Upon the whole, I believe nothing will be decided this ſeſſion; and if things remain tolerably quiet with you till next year, I imagine the affair will drop altogether.

Charles Townsend May 16, 1767.

"On Monday laſt the Conſideration of American Affairs was to have come on, & as a full Houſe was expected, every Body but Members were excluded, except the Agents of the Colonies, who had ſpecial Leave to be preſent at the Debates.—But ſo much Time was ſpent that Day upon the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company, that the other was adjourned till Wedneſday.

"On that day, when the Houſe was to proceed on the affairs of America, the Agents were, by a freſh order, ſpecially excluded.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer made a long ſpeech, which thoſe who heard it ſay, was a very fine one, in which he largely expatiated on the neceſſity of drawing ſome aids from America, and yet ſuch as ſhould be as little as poſſible burthenſome to them, or ſhould actually be attended with ſome advantage.—Of the latter kind he propoſed a duty on Wine, Oil, and Fruit imported into the colonies from Spain, and Portugal, allowing the ſhips at the ſame time to go thither directly, without touching at England.—The others were taking off the drawback on China Ware, and Glaſs, and a duty on Paper, Painters Colours, and Tea, to be paid in America, the 25 per cent. on the Tea now left here, being firſt remitted, and the duty to be 3d. per Pound only.—Mr. Grenville ſlighted theſe duties as trifles, and propoſed emitting a Paper currency for America by acts of Parliament, to be iſſued on Loan, the intereſt to be diſpoſed of by Parliament.—The Chancellor then ſaid, he was coming to that, having a bill for that purpoſe ready to propoſe, inſinuating, that Mr. Grenville had ſtole his project, and prevented him.—They went upon the affair of the diſobedience of New-York, which Mr. G—— endeavoured highly to exaggerate.—Various propoſals were made to enforce obedience for the future. One was to lay a duty on New-York, beſides thoſe on other colonies, and to apply the produce of that duty, to the ſubſiſtence of the troops in the barracks.—Another to empower their Officers to quarter the troops on private houſes.—Another to empower the Governor to draw on the Treaſurer of the Province for the ſums neceſſary, enjoining the Treaſurer, under a ſevere penalty, to pay, and indemnifying him for ſo doing.—Another, that an oath, by way of Teſt, ſhould be enjoined to be taken by all Officers, Civil and Military, Counſellors, Aſſembly Men, &c. in the colonies, before they entered on the execution of their truſts, that they believed in, or admitted, the right of Parliament to tax America, and that they would be faithful to the Parliament, or words to this purpoſe. At length, after long debate (for they ſat till one in the Morning) it was carried on a diviſion 183 to 95, to order in a bill to prohibit the Governor in New-York to proceed in legiſlation with the Aſſembly, by conſenting to any act of their's, till they had yielded obedience to the act of Parliament here, for quartering of Soldiers in America.—The Minority, conſiſted of thoſe who were againſt all ſevere compulſory meaſures, among whom was Secretary CONWAY.

"The miniſtry have, in fact, been greatly embarraſſed with this affair, being preſſed upon it by the oppoſition early in the ſeſſion, which drew from them an inconſiderate promiſe, that they ſhould take ſome meaſures or other, which they haſtily admitted were neceſſary, in order to ſupport the ſovereignty of the country;—for there is reaſon to think, that had they been left to themſelves, they would gladly have let the matter ſleep, and given the colonies ſome time to recollect themſelves, and to have come voluntarily into what is here called their duty. But the oppoſition will not ſuffer this; and all the real good-will that the Miniſtry can procure for the colonies ſeems to be this, That nothing done by one delinquent colony, ſhould draw inconveniencies on the reſt, that have not given offence; & that this laſt mentioned meaſures with New-York, as the mildeſt of thoſe propoſed, ſhould be taken, ſomething being neceſſary to quiet the clamour of the oppoſition, and to ſave the honour of parliament.

June 12, 1767.

"During the debates relative to North America, and the Eaſt-India Company, none have of late been admitted beſides the members. They ſtill remain ſitting, and will continue ſo, till towards the end of this month. With regard to N. America, an act is bro't in, and will certainly paſs, diſabling the aſſemblies of New-York and Georgia to paſs any law, and render invalid every reſolution or vote that they ſhall make (other than a vote for adjourning ſuch aſſemblies) until they fully comply with the ſeveral acts of parliament made here, for the quartering of ſoldiers in the colonies. How this will be reliſhed, or what effect it will have with you, time will diſcover. For my own part I am, as a well-wiſher to both parties, extremely ſorry, that matters are not in a better way of being accommodated, without being obliged to have recourſe to irritating meaſures, by which both ſides will in the end be ſufferers, and our common enemies the ſole gainers. But as I am far from being apt to deſpond, I ſtill hope that things will at length take a conciliating turn.

As for the affairs of the Eaſt-India company, they are yet in a very unſettled ſtate. They have had many general meetings, chiefly with a view to prevent the bill (now paſt the houſe of commons) from paſſing in the lords houſe, reſtraining them from dividing above ten per cent. for one year, an inconvenience which the proprietors have, againſt the unanimous opinion of the directors, brought upon themſelves, by their precipitately voting a dividend of twelve and a half per cent.

"This is the firſt time the parliament have taken cognizance of their affairs as a trading company; which, however diſagreeable to ſome of its members, will certainly be attended with ſalutary effects, in preventing much fraud & ſtock-jobbing.

"As for the miniſtry, there is at preſent no talk of any immediate changes; and I think it moſt likely, as they have wreſtled through the ſeſſion ſo far, they will keep their ſtations till towards winter.—But as the friends of the Devonſhire, Bedford, New-Caſtle, Grenville, & Rockingham families are, I am well informed, now firmly united, there is not the leaſt doubt but they will get into power about that time."

By a Gentleman from Canada, we are inform'd, there has lately been a terrible Storm there; great Numbers of Barns and other Buildings were blown down, and in the Town of Montreal, of 33 Steeples, 31 had been blown down—We have not yet heard any fur ther Particulars.

BOSTON, September 7.

By a Letter from London of the 13th of June, we learn, that the Bill for appointing a Board of Commiſſioners in America, has had a ſecond Reading in the Houſe of Commons and paſſed to be engroſſed: That the Salaries for the Governor, Secretary, and Juſtices of the Superior Court, were ſettled at the Sums formerly mentioned; and that the Juſtices of the Inferior Courts in the Colonies were alſo to have fix'd Salaries, the firſt Juſtice £.300 ſterl. per Ann. and the others £.100 each.

Capt. Clark in a Sloop from this Port bound to North Carolina, about the 10th ultimo, met with a terrible Gale of Wind, which oblig'd him to cut away his Maſt, & was in great Danger of Sinking; but was happily met with by Capt. Doane, in a Whaling Sloop bound in, who took him and all his People on board, and arrived here laſt Week.

Wedneſday laſt departed this Life, and on Friday following was decently inter'd, the Remains of Mr. Peleg Wiſwall, late Maſter of the North Grammar School, in the 84th Year of his Age.

Tueſday arrived here the Ship Minehead, William Waters, from Anguilla, who informs, That at that Iſland on the 7th of Auguſt laſt at 3 o'clock in the Morning they had a ſevere Shock of an Earthquake, and between the Hours of 10 and 11, the ſame Forenoon they had a violent Guſt of Wind, which flew round from E. N. E. to S. W. At Noon had a ſmall Shock of an Earthquake, but did not hear of any Damage done in the Iſland.

We hear that on the 9th of Auguſt a ſevere Gale of Wind came on, when Capt. Waters put to Sea.

On the 26th Auguſt, at 4 in the Afternoon, Lat. 39 24 and Long. 67 54 W. Capt. Waters ſpoke a Brig from St. John's Newfoundland, belonging to Philadelphia, call'd the James, Capt. James Johnſon, bound to Philadelphia, had been out 60 Days he being in Diſtreſs for Proviſions, and been three Weeks at ſhort Allowance, and at that Time not having 10 lb. of any Kind of Proviſions onboard, Capt. Waters ſupplied the People.

Tueſday Night arrived here Capt. Cochran in a Snow from St. Chriſtophers, but laſt from Euſtatia: On the 9th Auguſt he met with very high Gales of Wind, which carried away his Mainmaſt, and did him other Damage.

It is generally thought there has been a Hurricane at ſome of the Weſt-India Iſlands, as ſo many Veſſels have met with hard Gales on their Paſſages therefrom.

FIFTY DOLLARS is offered as a Reward to any Perſon, who ſhall apprehend the Thief that ſtole from the Tree of Liberty in Newport, on the 25th of Auguſt laſt, a Copper-Plate, which was affixed thereto in Commemoration of the Repeal of the Stamp Act, ſo that he may be bro't to Juſtice.

CRY ALOUD: Spare not: Lift up thy voice like a trumpet: Oh! that I had the lungs of Stentor! Or, if I had the wings of a Seraph, I would croſs the wide atlantic, in a moment, & deliver a faithful meſſage to the dear, dear mother country.

Forbear, my good old Matron, any longer to give heed to the lies that are told you of your own children: As you would not forfeit that character of wiſdom, of equity and generoſity for which you have been for ages paſt ſo juſtly fam'd: As you would not be deceived to your own real ſubſtantial injury, if not ruin, which may heaven avert! ceaſe to regard the idle tattle or rather the malignant whiſpers of thoſe who have too long been endeavouring to impreſs your mind with unreaſonable jealouſies of your colonies—They have told you, we know they have, that it is the intention of America to deſpiſe your conſtitutional authority, to break all connections with you, and to become independent: And when I conſider the character and ſtations of ſome of theſe defamers, I cannot wonder you are diſpos'd to give credit to their reports: But, believe me, for I aſſure you, you may do it with ſafety, the colonies love, eſteem and honor you: You are the root from whence they ſprang: they venerate you as their parent: they are bound to you by the ties of blood: Provoke not your children to wrath, leſt——they be—diſcouraged. While you treat them well, and ſurely they have a right to ſuch treatment, take my word for it, they never will abate their filial reſpect for you: thoſe who tell you otherwiſe are vile calumniators: they are your enemies, your worſt enemies, more inveterate than the haughty powers of France & Spain, and would make it their ſport to ſee an open rupture between you and us.—Were we not eaſy and contented when you repealed the Stamp-Act? we were. But they had the inſolence to tell you otherwiſe; and reflect—Have you not too readily believed it! you have my dear good mother, indeed you have; at leaſt ſuffer me to tell you I think you have: elſe, whence is it that we are threatened with correction? Nay, your enemies and ours are now exulting with hopes of laſhing us with whips and ſcorpions: an armed force to keep us in awe, is their conſtant talk. Is it poſſible, think you, that your own offspring can bear to be told that e're long they ſhall be ſlaves to ſycophants and tools!—wretches, whom we ever deſpiſed, but can never dread.—When you repeal'd the ſtamp-act we were ſatisfy'd; content was in every heart, and every countenance was ſerene; and the tranquility was undiſturbed, 'till we were impudently told to our faces, what we are ſlow—ſlow to believe, that it was your fix'd determination to enſlave us. Could we have believed it, what muſt have been our ſentiments of our mother! Suppoſe it to be falſe, how intollerable is the inſolence towards you principally, as well as towards us!—While Britain remains wiſe, ſhe will never take ſuch meaſures as will without doubt deſtroy herſelf: as long as ſhe is virtuous, ſhe will not injure her colonies upon the partial repreſentations of their pretended friends or open enemies: She who has ſo long been the ſcourge of tyrants, will never ſet up a tyranny: While ſhe preſides over the world, the Umpire of nations, the ſupport of the liberties of mankind, ſhe will never attempt to enſlave her own children. Or, ſhould ſhe——the imagination is diſtreſſing! ſhould ſhe at ſome diſtant period—the inſtability of human things is ſuch! forgive, O ye pious anceſtors of Britain—ye guardians of their liberties & ours—O PITT, and all ye patriots of the preſent time; forgive the thought, and I will utter it——Should Britain at ſome diſtant period—become a tyrant, and forge chains for America—far diſtant muſt that period be—Would America ſubmit to her tyranny?—I need not expect an anſwer.—Slavery, my dear mother, we cannot think of: we deteſt it. If this be a crime, remember we ſuck'd it with your milk. We boaſt of our freedom, and we have your example for it. We talk the language we have always heard you ſpeak. Britons will never be ſlaves. This is your own language, and your children have learnt it of you—We muſt be free, and leave the fair inheritance to our children. Do you blame us, can you blame us, for imitating the noble example of your fathers and ours! What mean thoſe ſeas of blood which they ſhed to tranſmit the bleſſing of freedom to you & to us! Will you part with that freedom? no you will ever maintain it. Would you deprive us of it? you will not attempt it, till you ſhall be infatuated by the artful and malicious inſinuation of your enemies and ours. For God's ſake, be cautious of being deceived by them: They are deſigning men, artful enough to deceive the very elect: All we want is to ſtand before you upon a footing with them: We are ready to anſwer what they alledge againſt us:—Be you the judge, and judge righteous judgment: Then will you ceaſe to meditate feverities againſt thoſe, whoſe affection for you is natural, and if it be not your own fault, will be as laſting as your exiſtence.
